

Composting Water Tank

If compost material is too dry, the process will slow or stop.

West Central Indiana Solid Waste Management District Watering Tank.

The shape of the compost pile can also influence moisture content. Peaked or flattened windrow tops can shed or trap water.

Rule of thumb

Compost should have moisture content of 40-60%.